Attorney Diane Baker

The founding member of our firm, Diane Baker is a native of Atlanta, and an honors graduate of Oglethorpe University and the Emory University School of Law. She is a frequent speaker at legal and estate planning seminars.

She is honored to hold an AV rating from Martindale Hubbell: the highest rating for Ethics and Legal Ability, based on peer reviews from other attorneys.

Formerly Senior Counsel at NationsBank, Ms. Baker focuses her practice in two areas: Estate Planning and Business Law.

She is currently serving as President of the Estate Planning Council of North Georgia, and she is also a member of the National ElderCare Matters Alliance, recognizing her expertise and many years of legal experience.

Ms. Baker enjoys working with clients to develop personalized estate plans to accomplish their family and financial goals, while helping to avoid federal estate tax.

She drafts Wills and Trusts, and advises clients on legal issues involved with Guardianship of incapacitated adults, contesting Wills and estate tax planning strategies. In the Business Law area, she handles Incorporations, Limited Liability Companies (LLCs) and contracts. She also advises clients on Asset Protection issues.

Ms. Baker and her husband live in Sandy Springs.
